

WELCOME

Welcome to our new look newsletter for the youth of Gowkthrapple. We thought you might have been a bit fed up with the 'High School Musical' word searches and 'Bob the Builder' colouring in pages - so we have designed a newsletter just for you!

As you might have guessed none of us here in the office are really that trendy or hip - but we are willing to have a bash so here goes.....we hope you enjoy and please, please get in touch with any suggestions you have for improvement!

SCHOOLS OUT!

Now that school is out for the summer - don't get bored get active! Visit www.northlan.gov.uk and click on the 'Breakout' link. You will find a list of activities for your age group in your area from arts and crafts to street dance classes

SPLASH OUT

North Lanarkshire Council are again offering free swimming for all school age kids during the summer holidays. These free sessions are available locally at Aqua Tec in Motherwell and Wishaw Sport Centre.

Summer 2010

ARTS & YOUTH NEWSLETTER

COMPETITION TIME

YOUR NEWSLETTER, YOU CHOOSE THE NAME!

Ok - so we know the name for our new youth newsletter might be a bit boring - so the ball is in your court to come up with a cooler, hipper name.

We are looking for something that represents you and your neighbourhood. To make things more interesting we have 5 pairs of passes for Mega Bar Under 18's up for grabs for the best suggestions (age restriction 12-17 years of age).

Please have all suggestions to our office by 6th August 2010. Good luck!

ART ATTACK

We are looking to find some budding young artists in our neighbourhood. The Co-op is looking for drawings of your local community.

The winning drawing will be published in the next newsletter and artist will win passes to M&D's Theme Park in Motherwell. All entries must be handed into the office by 6th August 2010.
